torate for Humbler Dutles,

Rev. Dr. T. Hubert Jones, who re

Associated Charities in this city, April 1

Dr. Jones has always taken deep in-terest in charity work, and decided to directly under the charge of Miss Ida

Green, who is acting general secretary

the Capital Yesterday.

President Roosevelt Directs that

Full Civic Honors Be Paid-National Guard Participates.

The honorary pallbearers will be Secre-

Delegates of the Philippines to Congress;

District Attorney Baker yester ernoon agreed to accept $4,000 as bone for NEWS CUT SHORT.

The Woman's Interdenominational Mis-

of 339 and 343 G street southwest, yesterday, aft-

Cleveland charge.

services elsewhere.

BOOKIES GET MONEY

Blacklegs Find Victims at Benning Track.

FROM ONE FOOT TO THE OTHER

District Police on Hand to See that Law Is Not Violated by Squad from New York-Federal Government Lends Aid Through Bugler, Who ls a Marine in Full Uniform.

With the assistance of a corps of Pinkerton detectives, some of the detectives from the department of the' District of Columbia, a squad of police, headed by a captain-bicycle police, mounted police, and ordinary patrolmen-the Washington Jockey Club was able to open its spring meeting at the Benning race track yes-

The attendance was not very large and men were much in the majority, but there were enough victims present to keep the long lines of bookmakers busy. Indeed, they were so busy making book that they had scant time to pay attention to the ambulatory features of the supposed law under which they are opering the afternoon did the police evince enough interest in the proceedings to exclaim, mildly: "Gentlemen, you must and business continued swimmingly, while the police moved on.

the features of the racing in mud yester- than double the regular prices. day, the bookmakers fared unusually

All calculations as to "form" and as to "the races last evening. The women looked one of the strong links in the chain of apologies for horse racing, were upset when it was found that there had been hours of rain before the starting of the first race. The race followers who filled the cars going out to Benning for the first race looked almost as gloomy as the weather as they caught a glimpse of the swamps and marshes that surround the swamps and sale steeled and son. One state of the sur race track, for the ground was covered dwith water. The faces of the bookmakers were correspondingly happy, for after all there may be such a thing as form, and when the public has some chance to reason, instead of guessing, as to which cause to complain. The race track was a ning to-morrow to snift the pleasant odors sea of yellow mud, and any man who was able to guess which horse could wade the Potomac and see the thoroughbreds through it first was entitled to all of the run. money he could win! But from the size beaten, of the fat rolls of yellow bills-almost as "Washington wants racing for several

Favors the Bookies.

Might Hurt Bookles.

And another horseman who had feared that, this being the National Capital, the laws against gambling might be enforced den and gloomy throng. There was only a sprinkling of women about the grand stand, and these, for the money of Washingtonians, "it might not of a class that are usually assistant Bookles.

Might Hurt Bookles.

And another horseman who had feared that, this being the National Capital, the laws against gambling might be enforced said that if any move were made to stop the professional gamblers from winning the money of Washingtonians, "it might not of a class that are usually assistant To-day:

"During the four years that I have been in the senate I have never seen anything so bold and barefaced as is now going on. The element of money is unmistakable. In fact, the situation is so obvious now that senators who might have opposed the bills may in several instances find it. mighty few of the faces of well-known

Marine Blows Bugle.

ting things started. In full uniform of the United States Marine Corps, this soldier sities. comes solemnly forward and rings the grasps his bugle and blows a call sum- hotels get for necessary accor moning the horses to the post.

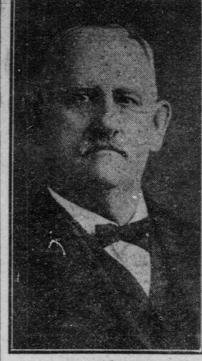

It seemed to be so well understood that there would be no interference with the bookmakers and their trade of winning who throng the hotel lobbles and for the will take part: Mrs. Anne Grant Fugitt, the money of the Washington men and presence of the strange females who Mrs. Esther Gumprecht, Mr. Joseph women who wanted to bet that there was gather wherever the races are held. an unusual number of the fraternity in But the bookmakers were jubilant last ray, Mr. Frank J. Duggan, Mr. L. F. line. There were about seventy of the night. They had had a good day. The Eberbach, Mr. T. B. Amiss, Mr. W. S. the first fifty of the elite among the gamblers were J. Lyons, I. Moore, T. B. Alexander, W. Davis, N. F. Mullen, Al Chinnick, J. J. Leslie, S. Leon, Johnson & Leon, F. Tilly, M. Sterns, A. Schissler, A. Krauss, B. Cochrane, H. Price, B. Reno, John Blake, F. Vogt, I. Soloman, M. Maxey, J. Brady, A. Stoefel, C. E. Jones, F. Michaels, A. Schislenger, Joseph Todd, J. Hammersling, John Litchenstein. Hirsch, Worth & Co., H. Ford, W. A. Lemmon, Ed Austin, H. M. Marks, Ben Davis, Tom Murphy, and a number of others who put only one name for identification on top of their betting sheets, such as Kessel. Cobe, Mell, Spencer, Fitch, Reder, Nies, Bee, Otis, and so on.
All of them, whether they had one name or two, did a rushing business, and for the Federal judge of the United just before each race there were to be States at Minneapolis, in place of seen many a young man of limited income William Lochren, who will serted. Perhaps it was the drizzling rain. wants to appoint Milton D. Purdy, of But the tiny lawn in front of the club-

Caly One "BROMO QUININE," that h Laxative Bromo Quirine Gasch, who died Sunday from injuries Curesa Coldin One Day, Grip in 2 Days

Saturday evening, will be held this afternoon at the residence of his

WON BATTLE OF BENNING.

REPRESENTATIVE T. W. SIMS, Whose bill for widening Benning bookmaking.

ating, and only twice or three times dur- uncomfortable. At any rate, there were either he or his clerk or his sheet-writer lic, it did something for the Washington then that the bill be recommitted with would shift from one foot to the other, Jockey Club, for it drove people who his amendment to the District Comwere not betting under the cover of the mittee, with instructions to favorably grand stand, where the liquor counters chairman Smith, of the District Com-As usual, it was a fine day for the maintained by the Jockey Club are sta- mittee, who had not taken sides one way bookmakers and a bad day for the pub- tioned. Here, so that there may be no or the other, on the original proposa; of lic. The latter crowded the street cars after the races, many of them fortunate license of the Jockey Club is prominently ments of that able Tennesee general, then after the races, many of them fortunate if they had enough to pay their fare. The bookmakers went back in taxicabs, automobiles, and carriages.

Costly Refreshments.

The bookmakers went back in taxicabs, automobiles, and carriages.

The bookmakers went back in taxicabs, automobiles, and carriages.

The bookmakers went back in taxicabs, automobiles, and carriages.

The bookmakers went back in taxicabs, automobiles, and carriages.

The bookmakers went back in taxicabs, automobiles, and carriages.

The bookmakers went back in taxicabs, automobiles, and carriages.

The bookmakers went back in taxicabs, automobiles, and carriages.

The bookmakers went back in taxicabs, automobiles, and carriages.

The bookmakers went back in taxicabs, automobiles, and carriages.

The bookmakers went back in taxicabs, automobiles, and carriages. The wet weather which set in unex- their eyes when they drink, at prices in favor of the passage of the amendment pectedly rather upset the calculations of that must make down-town saloon keep- to four against it, and when the vote was the "wise ones" as to the picking of ers who have no racing adjunct to their taken on the bill as amended there was winners, and as the winning of horses places envious. The Washington Jockey not a dissenting voice heard. known as "rank outsiders" was one of Club's prices are in many cases more

All calculations as to "form" and as to the races last evening. The women look- stamp out the evil at the Benning track. plot at Oak Hill Cemetery. The body

And yet a writer in the New York Morning Telegraph that morning had written: sion Office, is anxious for the opening. "The merchants and professional men and the folk from the country round at the present meeting. But yesterday the bookmakers had no about Washington will gather at Ben-

"One and all are glad Macfarland is not of a class that are usually associated be the beginning of a move that would rewith public gatherings of a high class. duce my $50,000 worth of property to $5,000 There is no duce my $50,000 worth of property to $5,000 | There is no mistaking the general belief There were one or two members of the House of Representatives and a Sendir or two at the track, but even they did not look quite happy, or as if they were having a good time. One Congressdid not look quite happy, or as if they were having a good time. One Congressman, who had been watching the second the notions of a group, which is a very the notions of a group, which is a very the race track, with at least thirty for the man, who had been watching the second race with some enthuslasm, thinking his horse had won, said:

"H—I! a man has about as much chance to pick a winner here as he would in a race across a duck pond."

Of course, no arrests were made. The bookmakers were too busy. The police, who were all over the place, when were all over the place, seemed who were all over the place, seemed much more interested in privace that the seem small. The seemed stricts have been small. The seemed mandent. Nineteen the seemed mandent. Nineteen the September 1 amendment. Nineteen the seemed at the September 1 amendment. Nineteen the seemed at the September 1 amendment. Nineteen the seemed which she died at the September 1 amendment. Nineteen the seemed at the September 1 amendment. Nineteen the seemed which she died at the September 1 amendment. Nineteen the seemed which she died at the September 1 amendment. Nineteen the seemed which she died at the September 1 amendment. Nineteen the seemed which she died at the September 1 amendment. Nineteen the seemed which she died at the September 1 amendment. Nineteen the seemed which she died at the September 1 amendment. Nineteen the seemed which she died at the September 1 amendment. Nineteen the seemed which she died at the September 1 amendment. Nineteen the seemed which she died at the September 1 amendment. Nineteen the set with several days ago.

Six or seven Republicans at the most are should sudden the work and the set of horses, and racing them to advertise and the set of horses, and racing them to advertise and the set of the set of the set. Word and the set of the set o chance to pick a winner here as he would in a race across a duck pond."
Of course, no arrests were made. The bookmakers were too busy. The police, who were all over the place, seemed much more interested in prying over the shoulders of the crowd to get a look at what the odds were, than in maintain in would be if legislation were passed if was only at very long intervals that in a half-apologetic tone one of them would reduce the value of their would say:

"Gentlemen, please move about."

Then the bookmaker would shift his card of prices into his other hand and contact the bookmaker would shift his are defensed on the place of the crowd to get a look at what the dods were, than in maintain-in would reduce the value of their property by 90 per cent. They would reduce the value of their would reduce the value of their maintenance of the crowd to get a look at what the dods were, than in maintain-in would reduce the value of their property by 90 per cent. They would call this a cold and meddlesone at trying the boot on to see how it fits."

BEGINS EVANGELISTIC WORK, and the granting of a new trial by the Court of Appeals. It was announced at the district attorney's office at torney's office weeken and it was only at very long intervals that in a half-apologetic tone one of them would reduce the value of their property by 90 per cent. They would call this a cold and meddlesone world, is manifest.

BEGINS EVANGELISTIC WORK, and the granting of a new trial by the Court of Appeals. It was announced at the district attorney's office weeken and with roots bitties of rish. Except for local trials by the Court of Appeals. It was announced at the district attorney's office weeken and with roots bitties of rish. Except for local trial by the Court of Appeals. It was announced at the district attorney's office weeken and with roots bitties of rish. Except for local trial the beautiful from the beauty of any weaken fig on the part of Gov.

The this counter is the beautiful from the beautiful from the beautiful from the beauti when the bookmakers' clerks stuffed away To be quite sure that everything was into their pockets and climbed into autounder the sanction of the law, and that mabiles, on their way back to the city. even the Federal authorities do not look This is the money they bring into town; askance at this public gambling, the but it is theirs now, when, as a matter Washington Jockey Club has obtained a of fact, most of it, tolled for by United States marine to assist it in get-heads of families, should have been spent with local merchants for household neces-

The money that is brought to town by "saddling bell," and when this is done, the bookmakers is what a few of the and it is a grave question whether even this sum is sufficient to repay the hotels regripatetics"—only they stood pretty still yellow mud through which the scrawny boyle, Mr. J. A. Brearley, horses had to stagger for their behoof for men condemned to wander. Among had affected them not at all. The public the Washington public—had proved a bad guesser, and the District of Columbia There is only one "BROMO QUININE." Look for police ignoring the fact that more police signature of E. W. GROVE. 25c. police, ignoring the fact that more police are wanted in the city, were out there in force to see that no obstreperous vict created a disturbance. Also, the band had played and Uncle Sam's marine had given the signal for the revels to begin. Well might the bookmakers have believed that they were favorites of fortune, backed by the Washington Jockey Club and above and beyond the law!

President Favors Purdy. Representative Steenerson called on the President yesterday to speak a good word for Charles C. Houpt, of St. Paul, betting ready cash as if he had an un- Senator Clapp is in favor of Mr. Houpt, supply. clubhouse was pretty nearly deand Senator Nelson wants W. E. Hale, a Minneapolis lawyer. The President

Funeral of W. F. Gasch. Funeral services for William F on every afternoon at the residence of his brother-in-law, Chris Arth, 510 Second street northwest. Interment will be in Glenwood Cemetery.

RACE-TRACK EVIL GETS DEATH BLOW

Continued from Page One.

Campbell, who introduced the great blanket anti-gambling bill, which was so successfully buried on the table of the District Committee room.

When the House, still in Committee of the Whole, finished its consideration of all the District business, Mr. Dalzell, who had been acting as chairman, left the chair and reported to Speaker Cannon the sundry bills which had been considered and were recommended

Under the regular procedure the clerk then read the title of these bills, and if no objection or amendment was offered, they were considered as having been read the third time and passed. When the bill for the widening of Benning road was reached, Mr. Sims stopped the clerk before the Speaker had pronounced it "read the third time and passed," and proposed the amend-What Motion Proposed.

Mr. Sims' motion proposed that the place vacated by Miss Green as acting still be recommitted to the House Disgeneral secretary of the association. Mr. Sims' motion proposed that the trict Committee, with instructions to report on it and his amendment faorably.
This motion carried. Then it was scovered by some of the wise parliahouse was soaked and the veranda looked uncomfortable. At any rate, there were not make it essential that the recomnever more than a dozen people in sight mitted bill, with the Sims amendment, be reported back at once.

Once more Gen. Sims led the attack when this was said to a bookmaker, the pocketbooks of the Washington pub-

It was a disgruntled lot of people that drew up and introduced as a bill, is constructed northwest, this afternoon at 2:30 St. Aloysius' or St. Peter's Catholic filed away from the sloppy track after sidered to contain all that is necessary to o'clock. Interment will be in the family Church.

Gen. Sims won against odds

ing Telegraph that morning had written:
"All Washington, from the solons of the nation, who sit in the two wings of the legislation, immediately telegraphed Gov. Capital and debate weights affects of the legislation, immediately telegraphed Gov. reason, instead of guessing, as to which horse will win, the bookmakers' profits sine Office is anxious for the penning of the Hughes that righteousness had prevailed in the House. He expects further that the Senate will promptly agree to the measure, thus shutting out the bookmakers

NEW YORK RACE FIGHT.

Rumors of Money Used at Albany to Defent Bills.

Albany, March 23 -For the first time when Congress is in session. Congress prominence, not numbered among the happens to be in session just now, but it avowed champions of the measure, said Postmaster General.

while I know a great many are here to day awarded a contract for furnishing 2,300 tons of as servant of Jesus Christ," said Robert Downing in his serm at the Pythian Temple is st night.

The former actor concluded his huge bundles of Uncle Sam's currency fession to teach the word of God, I re-

Musicale Is Planned.

Washington Chapter, American Institute of Banking, will give a musicale yesterday afternoon. which accept it for the annoyance of Thursday evening, at the chapter rooms, these loud-talking and loudly dressed men | 1214 F street northwest. The following Battle, Mr. H. McNamee, Mr. T. A. Mur-

TO PREVENT THE GRIP.

Safe Deposit Boxes $5 Per Year and Upward.

YOU CAN ONLY GET an adequate impression of the security of these safes and the arrangements for the convenience and comfort of safe-renters by inspecting the vaults. We cordially invite such inspection.

Interest Allowed on Checking Accounts.

AMERICAN SECURITY AND TRUST COMPANY

Northwest Corner of Fifteenth and Pennsylvania Ave. CHARLES J. BELL, President.

SETTLEMENT WORK NOW. PAID LAW'S PENALTY Gr. Jones Resigns Cleveland Pas-

Igned the pastorate of the Euclid Paolucci Dies on Gallows for Avenue Reformed Episcopal Church, of the Murder of Girl. Cleveland, Ohio, in order to study charity and settlement work, will enter upon his new line of effort with the

DEATH RESULTS IN HALF HOUR

come to Washington, where he thinks he can acquire a more comprehensive knowledge of the work than anywhere Light Weight and Short Drop Preelse. He is married, and has two chilvent Neck Being Broken by Fall. Walks with Firm and Steady Step It is understood his salary with the Associated Charities here is not any-Upon the Trapdoor-Left Letters thing like the stipend he drew from his Thanking the Attendants.

during the temporary withdrawal of Mr. Weller. Under her instruction and Led to the scaffold for the murder of Elizabeth Dodge, his sweetheart, almost guidance Dr. Jones will gradually assume the duties of general agent. two years ago, Joseph Paolucci, the convicted and consumptive sufferer, met his If plans materialize as they are now formulated, Miss Green will take a va. doom with a nerve of iron, at the District cation and spend it in Europe in Aug- jail yesterday morning. ust or September. By that time it is expected Dr. Jones will have acquired and it was thirty-one long-drawn-out min-The trap was sprung at 1:06 o'clock, a full knowledge of the Associated Charitles work in this city and take the him dead. Paolucci seemed the most disinterested Miss Green has not yet determined persons at the hanging. His face wore whether she will return to work in an ashy pallor, but his lips were firmly vacation or whether she will enlist her sprung he kissed a golden crucifix held in the hand of his spiritual adviser. "In fact," said Miss Green yesterday, "It is too early yet to say what will be The law's victim was not disconcerted done. My vacation may be deferred un- by the adjusting of the black cap or the til fall. But these are the present ar- placing of the noose about his neck. He stood erect on the trapdoor.

Warden Gives the Signal,

FERGUSSON'S BURIAL TO-DAY Deputy Warden Urner drew a handkerchief from his pocket, which was the signal for the execution. The jail physician and other doctors made frequent Body of Late Secretary Arrived in examination of the body, and tested the heart action and pulse of the dving man. The heart beating was recorded as ninety minute; the pulsation 194 a minute. Death did not result until more than half an hour had passed.

Lowered to a litter, Paolucci's body was again examined, and announcement was made that the eight-foot drop of his ninety-four-pound body was insufficient to break the man's neck. Death resulted from slow strangulation. Arthur W. Fergusson, late executive sec-This afternoon half a dozen friends loyal to Paolucci will bear his body to retary of the Philippine Commission, who died in Manila January 30, will be buried Mr. Sims' amendment, which he first from St. John's Church, Sixteenth and H Funeral services will probably be held in

Rev. M. Yaselii Nicholas, who comfort ed Paolucci in his last hours on earth, acompanied him to the scaffold. He will officiate at the simple funeral services.

Last Night in Prayer. Jail attendants say Paolucci spent his last night in prayer. His breakfast consisted of a cup of coffee.

Paolucci walked briskly to the cell where he was to await final details for his execution. Informed that all was in readness, Paolucci bade farewell to his spirittary of War Taft, Maj. Gen. J. Franklin ual adviser and jail attendant and then Bell, Chief of Staff of the army; Benito Lagarda and Pablo Ocampo de Leon, walked to the gallows.

According to his spiritual adviser, Pac-Associate Justice Day, of the United States Supreme Court; Senator William P. Frye, of Maine; William E. Curtis, Minister Calvo, of Costa Rica; Gen. C. F. Humphrey, U. S. A., retired; Brig. Gen. C. R. Edwards, chief of the insular bursay of the Way Devents. ucci became penitent many weeks ago and was prepared for death. In the last week at the jail he denied himself to ali visitors except the Italian priest. He wrote several letters, in which he thanked the jail officials for their courtesy and bureau of the War Department; John W. Foster, Col. Francis Colton, and F. J. for the killing of his sweetheart. Yanes, secretary of the Bureau of Ameri-Story of His Trial, yellow and as dirty as the mud through which the horses had raced—there were few guessers good enough to take away any money from the bookmakers.

It was noticeable that there were mighty form of the first conviction by the first conviction has become wide sentiment among the people here, and the take away any money from the bookmakers.

It was noticeable that there were mighty form of the first take and the fight over race-track betting beginning to find the conviction has become wide sentiment among the people here, and the capitol that money has been sent here to beat the bills. A senator of when Congress is in session. Congress is in session. Congress happens to be in session just now but it avoid a horizontal difference of the first take.

The following will be the active pall-bearers: Charles H. Cragin, W. B. Orme, J. Holdsworth Gordon, Lleut, Commander bearers: Charles H. Cragin, W. B. Orme, J. Holdsworth Gordon, Lleut, Commander bearers: Charles H. Cragin, W. B. Orme, J. Holdsworth Gordon, Lleut, Commander bearers: Charles H. Cragin, W. B. Orme, J. Holdsworth Gordon, Lleut, Commander bearers: Charles H. Cragin, W. B. Orme, J. Holdsworth Gordon, Lleut, Commander bearers: Charles H. Cragin, W. B. Orme, J. Holdsworth Gordon, Lleut, Commander bearers: Charles H. Cragin, W. B. Orme, J. Holdsworth Gordon, Lleut, Commander bearers: Charles H. Cragin, W. B. Orme, J. Holdsworth Gordon, Lleut, Commander bearers: Charles H. Cragin, W. B. Orme, J. Holdsworth Gordon, Lleut, Commander bearers: Charles H. Cragin, W. B. Orme, J. Holdsworth Gordon, Lleut, Commander bearers: Charles H. Cragin, W. B. Orme, J. Holdsworth Gordon, Lleut, Commander bearers: Charles H. Cragin, W. B. Orme, J. Holdsworth Gordon, Lleut, Commander bearers: Charles H. Cragin, W. B. Orme, J. Holdsworth Gordon, Lleut, Commander bearers: Charles H. Cragin, W. B. Orme, J. Holdsworth Gordon, Lleut, Commander bearers: Charles H. Cragin, W. B. Orme, J. Holdsworth Gordon, Lleut, Commander bearers: Charles H. Cragin, W. B. Orme, J. Holdsworth Gordon, Lleut, The following will be the active pallgirl, he paid her attentions for eighteer months. Then a rival appeared, and the murder followed, on September 3, 1906. He fired two bullets into her heart, and then

The jury convicted him on the first balot. Several appeals were taken. On Saturday last President Roosevelt declined to league of Calvary Baptist Church, last allowed to take its course. WEATHER CONDITIONS.

U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Weather Bureau

Warnings have been issued for the following stages in the Lower Mississippi about March 29, viz.: About 17.8 feet at New Orleans; 46 feet at Natchez;

Temple is st night.

The former actor concluded his sermon by saying: "If I were going to start a crusade against gambling and drunken-crusade against gambling and drunken-moss it would not be with harshness, but

See, 200.

The receipts of the Washington Post-office for February aggregated $\forall 11.5\forall 68. \text{ for the washington Post-office for February aggregated $\forall 11.5\forall 68. \text{ for the washington Post-office for February aggregated $\forall 11.5\forall 68. \text{ for the washington Post-office for February aggregated $\forall 11.5\forall 68. \text{ for the washington Post-office for February aggregated $\forall 11.5\forall 68. \text{ for the washington Post-office for February aggregated $\forall 11.5\forall 68. \text{ for the washington Post-office for February aggregated $\forall 11.5\forall 68. \text{ for the washington Post-office for February aggregated $\forall 11.5\forall 68. \text{ for the washington Post-office for February aggregated $\forall 11.5\forall 68. \text{ for a m., 49; 6 a. m., 49; 6 a. m., 49; 6 a. m., 49; 6 a. m., 49; 10 a. m., 49; 12 n. m., 49; 13 n. m., 49; 14 n. m., 49; 15 n. m., 49; 16 n. m., 49; 12 n. m., 49; 13 n. m., 49; 14 n. m., 49; 15 n. m., 49; 16 n. m., 49; 16 n. m., 49; 12 n. m., 49; 12 n. m., 49; 12 n. m., 49; 12 n. m., 49; 16 n. m. stamped paper.

George Jackson, forty-two years old, of 16 Fourth street southeast, who was thrown from a street car early Sunday morning at First and East Capitol streets, died at Casualty Hospital vestering, afterwork, afterwork,

Temperatures in Other Cities. Temperatures in other cities, together with the amount of rainfall, for the twelve hours ended at 8 ing sionary Union has entered the fight against betting at the Benning race track, and will carry the matter the before Congress to prohibit this and other p.m. yesterday, are as follows:

One horse was burned to death, another Asheville, N. C .. was seriously injured, and damages amounting to $1,200 were done by an early morning fire in the stables of Patrick and James Frawley, in the rear Bismarck, N. Dak.... Maj. Charles R. Miller, former commander-in-chief of the United Spanish War Veterans, is in this city from Cleveland, Ohio. Maj. Miller will attend the meeting of the Fourth Immune Camp to-morrow night in Costello's Hall, Sixth and G streets northwest. 0.28

muns Camp to-morrow night in Costello's Main.

Sixth and G streets northwest.

A fraud order was issued yesterday by the Post-office Department against "Rev. Edward A. Wilson." of Brooklyn, N. Y. It was said the distributed at S a supply, and that the article failed to show the properties claimed.

Jacksonville, Fla. Kansas City Mo. Little Rock, Ark.

Marquette, Mich. By will dated December 23, 1907, filed yesterday for probate, J. Louis Landrick, who died recently, bequeaths $5 to each of his children, Sarah, Louis L., and Edward Landrick, and the remainder of his estate to his mother, Mrs. Sarah Landrick. Harry M. Martin is named as executor.

Word has been received by friends and relatives of the family that John K. Hampton, well-known citizen of Winchester, Va., and a member of one of the foremost families of Kentucky, died Saturday night at his country seat, near Winchester. Mr. Hampton was seventy-six years old, and is survived by four sons and four daughters.

Secretary Taff Gon G. M. Dodgen and Lieut. Aven 0.01 0.01

Secretary Taft, Gen. G. M. Dodge, and Senator Wetmore, of the Grant Memorial Commission, decided yesterday that work on the memorial in the Botanic Garden should be resumed with the removing of the Beck, Crittenden, and other trees from the site of the proposed memorial. Col. Bromwell will direct the removal of the trees. Camp Avery, in honor of the late First Lieut. Morton L. Avery, Philippine Scout, who died at Camp Bumpus, Layte, on John H. Harris was fined $25 in the Police Court yesterday by Judge Kimball, on a February 2, 1905, from wounds received in Police Court yesterday by Judge Kimball, on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. He did not have the money and was rent to jail for six months. It was charged the negro visited boarding houses, and by representing he had a trunk containing money and valuables coming to him, obtained small loans.

February 2, 1905, from wounds received in action.

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAFS.

PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of litching, Blind, Bleeding, or Protruding Piles in the literature of the lit

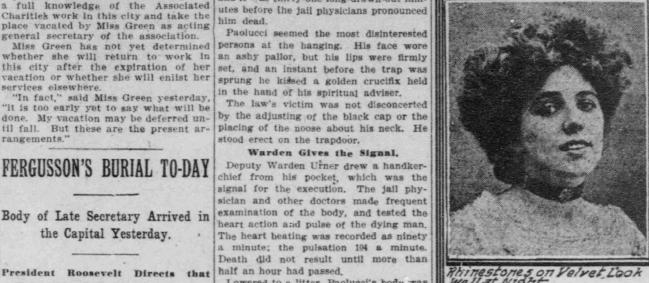

THE PALAIS ROYAL.

TO-DAY

The Woman's Page of The Sunday Herald is proving helpful to all of us. The Palais Royal's jewelry chief gladly borrows the illustrations from last Sunday's paper, which told so interestingly and instructively of artificial jewelry, and how to wear it artistically.

HERALD SUGGESTIONS

Adopted by the Palais Royal.

75c

48c

$2.98

48c

THE PALAIS ROYAL, GSt., 11th.St.

CALVARY CHURCH MUSICAL.

Entertainment Under Auspices of the Men's League.

Under the auspices of the men's ommute the sentence, and the law was night a company of New York artists gave a musicale. Selections from famous composers > were sung, and their efforts were enthusiastically applauded. Those who took part in the programme were Mrs. Frank E. Ward, soprano; Dr. Franklin D. Lawson, tenor; Mr. Frank Croxton > singing of Gounod's "Faust" by Mrs. Ward, Dr. Lawson, and Mr. Croxton. Several violin solos were played by de Vaux-Royer.

The auditorium of the church was brilliantly lighted, and decorations of ferns and American Beauty roses adroned the baptistry.

The Largest Morning Circulation. All advertising contracts made by The Washington Herald are based upon its viz.: bona fide circulation—a circulation in 920-922 E STREET. 'PHONE M. 659.

On your glasses is putting off buying comfort. Can be put on YOUR glasses. 50c, 75c, $1.00.

EDWIN ETZ OPTICIAN H. ETZ 1005 G St. "On GSt., Opposite Boston House."

edro Domecq's Sherries.

From 50c to $3 full qt.

Christian Xander's 909 7th St. Phone Main 24.

DIED.

invited. Interment at Mount Olivet.

BUTLER-Departed is life on Sunday, March 22, 1808, at his residence, 911 Barry place north-west, GEORGE, beloved husband of Delia Buther (nee Madison.) uneral Wednesday, March 25, at 9 t. m., from St. Augustine's Church, Requiem mass for the repose of his soul. Relatives and friends are COOTS—Departed this life Saturday, March 21, 1908, at 6:30 a.m., after a painful illness of five weeks, which she bore with Christian patience, ALICE A. SMITH COOTS (nee Lena Minor). She leaves a devoted husband, sister, niece, and a host of relatives to mourn her loss, 'ouneral Tuesday,' March 24, at 1 o'clock, from her late residence, 1722 E street northwest. Relatives and friends invited, (Philadelphia, Pa.; Brooklyn, N. Y., and Cleveland, Ohio, papers ERGUSSON-The funeral of the late ARTHUR W. FERGUSSON, who died at Manifa on January 30, 1908, will take place on Tuesday, March 24, at 2:30 p. m., at 8t. John's Episoopal Church, Washington, D. C. Interment will be in Oak Hill Cemetery. Friends invited. GRIFFIN-On Monday, March 23, 1908, at 7:30 p. m., at his residence, 946 Twenty-sixth street, northwest, after a long illness, JOHN, the be-loved husband of the late Bridget Griffin.

Notice of funeral hereafter. GASCH-On Sunday, March 22, 1908, at 12:30 a. m., WILLIAM F., beloved husband of Franceska-Arth Gasch, and youngest son of Richard Gasch.

Funeral from his late residence, 510 Second streets northwest, Tuesday, March 24, at 2:39 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment private at Glenwood Cemetery. GUTRIDGE—On Sunday, March 22, 1808, at 10:19 o'clock, LUCINDA, beloved wife of John C.
Gutridge, mother of Sarah Boxley and Henry Gutridge, and daughter of the late Maria Turner.
Fimeral from Metropolitan Zion Wesley Church, D street, between Second and Third street southwest, on Wednesday, March 25, at 1 p. m. Relatives and friends respectfully invited to attend.

HARRISON—On Sunday, March 22, 1998, at 1255 Wisconsin avenue, ELIZABETH, daughter of the late George and Elizabeth Harrison, of Georgetown, D. C. Funeral ervices at Oak Hill Chapel Wednesday, March 25, 1998, at 19:30 a. m.

KLINE—On Monday merning, March 23, 1908, at 3:39 o'clock, at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Brig. Gen. JACOB KLINE, U. S. A., retired. The funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from St. John's Church. Interment at Arlington. McGRAW-On Saturday, March 21, 1908, at 10:30 McGRAW—On Saturday, March 21, 1998, at 19:33 p. m., at his residence, 122 Sixth street southeast, RICHARD D., son of the late Edward and Mary McGraw.

Requiem mass will be held Tuesday, March 24, at 9 a. m., at St. Peter's Church. Relatives and friends are invited to attend.

MILBOURN-On Sunday, March 22, 1908, at the residence of his niece, Mrs. James A. K. Moore, 622 R street northwest, CHARLES W., husband of the late Ann (Jackson) Milbourn, and formerly of Georgetown, D. C., in his eighty-first year, Funeral from the residence of his niece Wednessday, March 25, at 3 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment at Oak Hill Cemetery.

> FUNERAL DIRECTORS. GEORGE P. ZURHORST,

FUNERAL DESIGNS.

FUNERAL FLOWERS GUDE, PHONE M. 474